Bothering My Aunt Hazel, the Flapper with endless kid-questions, the way I'm asked about the 60s.

Hey, I was earning a living, married, the usual horses shot out from under. We owe a better personae in the acting department, though.